About Me

"Hi, I'm Yosef Fisseha, a dedicated and passionate IT professional with a strong educational background. I hold a Diploma in Hardware and Networking from Admas University, a Certification in Cisco Networking from Addis Ababa University, and a Degree in Computer Science from Microlink Information Technology College. With a solid foundation in computer systems and networks, I'm excited to apply my skills and knowledge to drive innovative solutions. I'm a team player, a quick learner, and a creative problem solver.
